NEW-YORK TRIBUNE,

"The Leading American Newspaper FOUNDED BY HORACE GREELEY. IN THE RECENT ELECTIONS THE people have declared in favor of hon-esty in politics and independence in jour-natism. The Tribune, which years ago-declared that it was not and never would the a party organ claims the verifiet, as the popular vindication of its course, and rec, emizes in the result the voice of the people, for reform and integrity in govern-ment, for candor and independence among new-papers. During the cannent, for cantor and independence among new-spapers. During the can-paign which has just closed The Tribune has fully maintained its right to the lift-of the "Leading American Newspaper." This position it has carned and retains for the following, among other reasons: It publishes all the news, earlier, more fully and more intelligently than any other paper.

It insists on peace throughout the whole country, the right of local self-government, and the protection of all classes in the exercise of their just and legal rights.

It advocates confidence and good feel-

Toolay The New-York Tribune is undoubterly the first of American newspapers; whatever may be said of its rivals, it has clearly won precedence of all, and very creditably does it represent the journalism of the country. White dealing with all the tones coming within the with all the topics coming within the range of a newspaper, The Tribune makes a specialty of the great subject of agricul-ture. It becomes therefore a matter of
